

Instructions for Application for a university professorship (W3-(Full), W2-(Associate), und W1 (Junior))

The following information is expected in a clear outline within your application. The points I to III and IX are usually shown in the Curriculum Vitae.

- I. Academic status: Title, academic degree, post-doctorate (when, where? topic, grade), current official position, own research group, etc.
- II. Academic Education: Education/studies (when, where? Subject), grants/awards or scholarships, temporary employment or studies especially abroad (when, where, duration) as well as further education/teaching
- III. Professional Qualification: Stations during academic education, certificates/degrees, professional qualifications (licensure, specialization, additional qualifications etc.), experience in a leading position and management;
 Only for junior professorship (W1): Conception for a further professional qualification (desired academic position)
- IV. Health Care /Patient Care (required by W2/ W3 Professorship with clinical focus):
  - senior physician competences any intended subspecializations, maybe desired specialization
  - Experience in health care/ patient care (area of responsibility, specialist knowledge and focuses, scope, operation catalogue or similar, if applicable)
  - Experience in economic management of a Clinic/Department/Sub-Unit
  - if available: Tabular summary of the economic key figures of the previous responsibility

economic key figures of the previous responsibility: Clinic for	2013 respectively 2 years ago	2014 respectively last year	2015 Respectively previous year
Number of beds stationary
Number of beds semi-residential
Number of cases stationary
Number of cases out-patients
Case Mix points
Case Mix Index
Return in total (in T€)
marginal return or EBIT (in T€)
Staff/Full-Time in total thereof medical staff
thereof nursing staff
thereof other staff

- V. Research: academic/scientific qualification, topic of your previously executed and current research focus, international connections and collaborations; any involvement in on-going research cooperation's and projects at the Charité or in the Berlin-Brandenburg region

- VI. Publishing activities (complete list of your publications including original publications as first author and senior author, Impact-points in total and in sum for the last five years as well as shown separately as first and senior author, personnel Scientific Citations Index (SCI, h-Index after Web of Science) for all publications)
- VII. third-party funds: Listing of all previous and on-going third-party-funds (in T€) as single applicant (by several applicants please only list your own share of the third-party-funds)

External Funding (in thousand €) in table form:

Topic Project	Funding Sponsor	Funding period	Total funding	For Personnel	For Materials	For Investments Funds
---------------	-----------------	----------------	---------------	---------------	---------------	-----------------------

This should include information on the total amount of previous and current personal external funding and how much of that was/is peer-reviewed.

- VIII. Teaching: Overall teaching experience, teaching events (topics and type such as lecture, laboratory, seminar, bedside teaching etc.), problem based learning (POL), experience with innovative teaching approaches, supervision of doctoral students and graduate students, activities in further education
- IX. Other: memberships and activities in scientific societies and committees, grants, awards, residences abroad and so on.
- X. Short Concept of the Professorship (maximum 4 pages):
- statement concerning planned research projects and collaborations with existing research groups
  - Possible integration into existing research networks and projects at the Charité and beyond in Berlin and Brandenburg
  - Statements on the approach to teaching and further education/training as well as for the medical care and health care

For junior professorship (W1): project proposal for your research project and concept through an interdisciplinary connection of the junior professorship at the research network of the Charité (maximum 10 pages)

- XI: Enclosures (as PDF-file at the lowest possible resolution)
- Copies of all of your diplomas, degrees, awards in black/white or in color but at the lowest possible resolution
  - three reprints of publications in the lowest possible resolution
  - if necessary: letter of recommendation or job references